

Case study: Sarn

This project was designed to extend outdoor living and to maximise all of the useable space effectively.

Elitescapes created a decking area which extended over a culvert and across to each boundary.

A set of steps enable the client to also gain access to the area beneath the platform.

